

2025 Mexico Trip

Advanced Kayaking in Mexico

December 13th to the 20th

Ready for the ultimate paddling adventure? Our Advanced Mexico Kayaking Trips are designed for experienced paddlers seeking world-class whitewater and unforgettable cultural experiences. Over the course of eight days, you'll challenge yourself on some of the steepest and most exciting creeks in the region, with a plan tailored for solid Class IV kayakers who want to refine their skills and push their limits.

These trips focus on progression and exploration. Our professional guides will help you sharpen your technique, discover new lines, and build confidence on demanding terrain. Beyond the river, you'll immerse yourself in the vibrant heart of Mexico, from remote villages to hidden landscapes that few travelers ever get to see.

Every day combines skill development, breathtaking adventure, and cultural discovery. While we provide a sample itinerary, flexibility is built in so that we can adapt to group abilities and river conditions, ensuring you get the most out of your trip.

Join us for an adventure that blends adrenaline, learning, and culture an experience only Adventurec can offer

Trip to Mexico

DAY 1	Arrive at Airport Mexico city Travel to Adventurec (4.5 hour drive), We will pick up from the airport. Get settled into accommodation before dinner and discussing the plan for the trip and the next day.
Day 2	Kayak Roadside/Tablazo The headwaters of the world famous Alseseca River, class IV low volume steep slides and waterfalls with some 4+ and 5 drops...allowing for a great fun day to be coached down our first dive into Mexican style creeking. With opportunities to Lap some drops and work on critical stroke timing.
DAY 3	Kayak Lower Jalacingo The first big mission of the trip, clean boof heaven! Enjoy the stunning hike into a beautiful jungle gorge full of great water boofs and flowy rapids! The perfect next step from Roadside.

Day 4	Kayak Truchitas a 25ft Waterfall on the Jalacingo River. Learn and develop water fall running skills during a Park and huck day at Truchitas. This gives a perfect opportunity to get used to running waterfalls, working on that entry angle and tuck! Run the drop as many times as you like to improve and get comfortable on this lower volume waterfall.
DAY 5	Kayak Big Banana - Second Gorge Walk into the famous Silencio waterfall, we'll put on below and kayak the next stunning section of drops and rapids, taking our time to get to know the rapids and deciding which to run. We'll take out at Tomata bridge and celebrate with a cervaza!
Day 6	Group Choice As a group we'll choose which section we'd like to repeat, other options could be the chilled class 3 Encanta Palmilla, or maybe you'd prefer to take a rest day and enjoy a massage. Either way we'll make a plan that the whole group's happy with
Day 7	Kayak Big Bannana - Full Run The final Big mission, we'll walk in to the spectacular Big Bannana waterfall, put on in the pool below and kayak the stunning first gorge as it winds through the jungle, great class 2,3 and 4 action...including Mexican 20 and Mordor, two must run class 4+ drops. Then we'll continue on to the second gorge, which we'll know well from day 5...completing this work renowned section.
Day 8	Travel to Mexico City Pack up and say goodbye to your coaches and the Aventurec team, travel to the airport and begin your journey home. Look at the amazing photos from your trip, and get ready to tell your friends the stories and adventures from your trip!
